To laugh in the sunshine,
to gladden the world!

Padraic Colum

NEWTON
COLLEGE OF THE SACRED HEART

Be like the sun and the meadow, which are not in the least concerned about the coming winter.

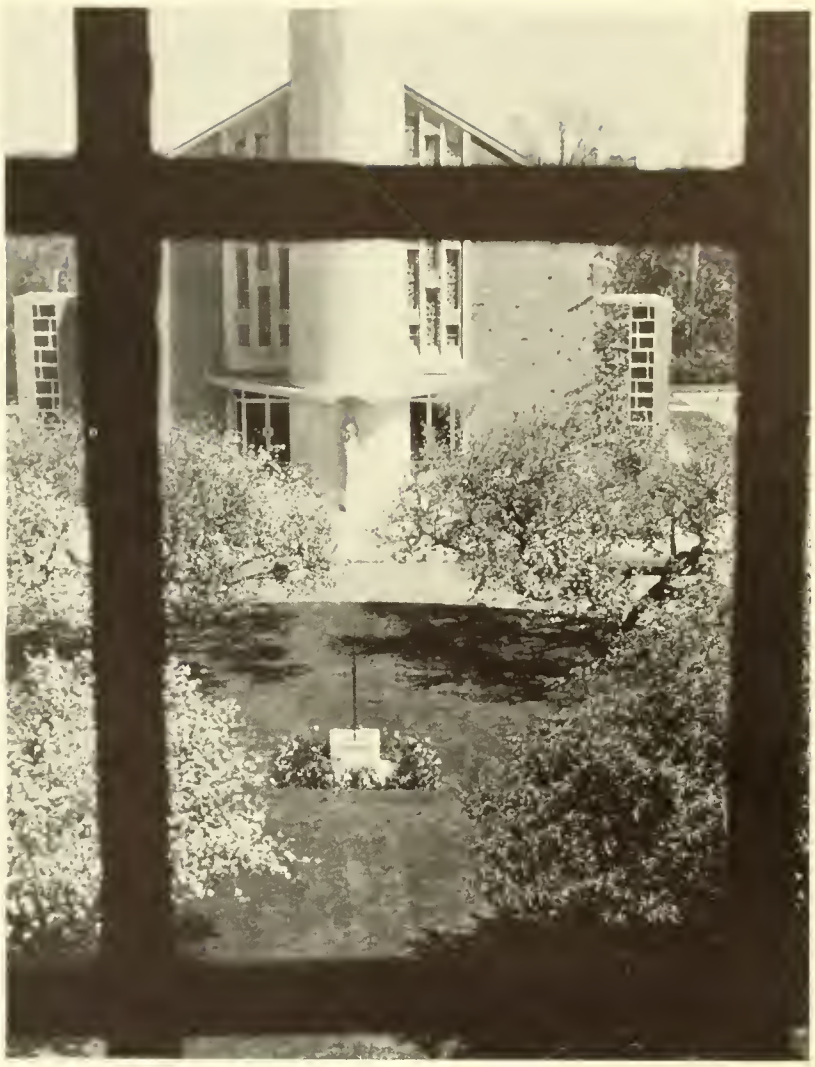
George Bernard Shaw



Thy face remembered is from other worlds,
It has been died for, though I know not when,
It has been sung of, though I know not where.

Stephen Phillips

I do not know what I may appear to the world; but to myself I seem to have been only like a boy playing on the sea-shore, and diverting myself in now and then finding a smoother pebble or a prettier shell than ordinary, whilst the great ocean of truth lay all undiscovered before me.

Sir Isaac Newton

Between the idea
And the reality
Between the motion
And the act
Falls the shadow.
T. S. Eliot

We shall not cease from exploration
And the end of all our exploring
Will be to arrive where we started
And know the place for the first time.

T. S. Eliot

Sister Mary H. Quinlan, Reverend Mother

Sister Gabrielle Husson, President of the College

Sister Catherine Maguire, Dean, Professor of English

And as imagination bodies forth
The forms of things unknown, the poet's pen
Turns them to shapes, and gives to airy nothing
A local habitation and a name.

You shall above all things be glad and young
For if you're young, whatever life you wear
it will become you; and if you are glad whatever's living will yourself become.

All the new and fancy dances
Don't you dare to steal my heart at the grand opening goingnow are done a mile apart.

unless you've got the bail

Think about a lot of things
City things. Life things
But not today.
